

HONG KONG TATLER

10 Hong Kong Art Exhibitions To See In May

Artists from near and far are in the spotlight this month, with local star Hon Chi-fun's exhibition at Asia Society and big-name international artists such as Harland Miller and McArthur Binion opening shows in Hong Kong

Simon Lee Gallery: Garth Weiser

© Garth Weiser. Courtesy of Simon Lee Gallery.

American artist Garth Weiser is unveiling a new series of paintings in Hong Kong this month.

Weiser made these new works by painstakingly building by layers of oil paint before scratching lines, curves and slashes into the viscous surface, leaving sprawling patterns that are evocative of the work of Abstract Expressionist painters such as Jackson Pollock and Willem de Kooning.

May 15 to June 27. 3/F Pedder Building, 12 Pedder Street, Central, 2801 6252. simonleegallery.com