July's must-visit Hong Kong art exhibitions transcend the boundary of time to explore identities and cities in the past, present and future.

7/10 Simon Lee Gallery: Valentina Liernur: Juro Que

Argentinian artist Valentina Liernur explores how materials can be used to achieve new effects in paintings. She often works with denim and gabardine and shifts between abstraction and figuration to play with the mark-making quality of oil paint on unconventional canvases. This exhibition is her debut show with the gallery and her first presentation in Asia. It showcases a new series in which she depicts female figures in mundane, everyday situations.

Until August 7. 304, 3/F, The Pedder Building, 12 Pedder Street, Central. Find out more at simonleegallery.com
