10 In-Demand Works on Artsy This Week: January 21, 2020

• Beatrice Sapsford and Shannon Lee ene 21, 2021 2:11pm

In this weekly series, Artsy's Curatorial and Editorial teams offer a look at the artworks that are currently gaining traction among collectors on Artsy. Looking at our internal data, we share a selection of works that Artsy members are engaging with through inquiries, page views, and saves, plus promising lots in current auctions. The following pieces are culled from recent online auctions and art fairs hosted on Artsy, as well as exhibitions and works added by our gallery partners.

France-Lise McGurn, So French (2020)

France-Lise McGurn
So French, 2020
Simon Lee Gallery
Sold

This dreamy, atmospheric canvas by the Glasgow-based artist France-Lise McGurn has received a number of inquiries. The work is emblematic of McGurn's practice, wherein she produces intimate drawings and paintings, sometimes directly onto gallery walls, that transport audiences into her interior world. Her works were recently exhibited at Simon Lee Gallery's London gallery last year, in a three-person show and a solo show titled "Percussia." While this particular piece has now sold, similar works by McGurn are still available from Simon Lee.
